THE COMPANIES ACT, 1956.

COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

OF

HALDER VENTURE LIMITED

1. The Regulations contained in Table 'A' in the first Schedule to the Companies Act, 1956, shall apply to the Company except in so far as they are not modified or abrogated in these articles.

SHARE CAPITAL

2. The Share Capital of the Company shall be such amount as may be authorised from time to time.
3. (a) Subject to the provisions of these Articles the shares shall be under the control of the Board who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons, on such terms and conditions, at such times, either at par or at a premium, and for such consideration as the Board thinks fit. Provided that, where at any time (after the expiry of two years from the formation of the Company or at any time after the expiry of one year from the allotment of shares in the Company made for the first time after its formation, whichever is earlier) it is proposed to increase the subscribed capital of the Company by the allotment of further shares, then subject to the provisions of section 81 (1A) of the Companies Act, 1956 the Board shall issue such shares in the manner set out in Section 81 (1) of the said Act, save the Board may determine whether or not any offer of shares made in such manner shall include a right exercisable by any person concerned to renounce all or any of the shares offered to him in favour of any other person.

(b) The Company shall be entitled to register any shares in the name of a minor person if fully paid up and after the dividend thereof to be collected by such person as it deems to guardian of such minor children.

4. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 1956 the Company shall have power to issue Preference Shares carrying a right to redemption out of profits which would otherwise be available for dividends or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purpose of such redemption or liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company and the Board may, subject to provision of Section 80 of the Act, exercise the power in such manner as may be provided in these Articles.
5. The Company may exercise the powers of paying commission conferred by Section 76 of the Companies Act 1956 and in such case shall comply with the requirements of that Section. Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares or debentures pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
6. Save as provided in Section 108 of the Companies Act, 1956, no transfer of a such shall be registered unless a proper instrument of transfer in the common forms as may be prescribed by law duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or behalf of the transferee has been delivered to the Company together with the certificate or, if no such certificate is in existence, the letter of allotment of the share. Each signature to such transfer shall be duly attested by the signature of one credible witness who shall add his address and occupation.
7. (a) Application for the registration of the transfer of a share may be made either by the transferor or the transferee, provided that, where such application is made by the transferor, no registration shall, in the case of a partly paid share be effected unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by Section 110 of the Act, and subject to the provision of the Companies Act, 1956, the Company shall unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the Register the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration of the transfer was made by the transferee.
(b) The Company shall not have any lien on fully paid shares and in the case of partly paid share the Company's lien shall be restricted to moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares.
8. (a) Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any share may carry interest, as may be decided by the Board of Directors, but shall not in respect thereof confer a right to dividend or participate in profits.
(b) The option or right to call of shares shall not be given to any person except with the sanction of the company in general meeting.

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

9. (a) The Company in general meeting may, from time to time, increase its capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient.
(b) Subject to any special rights or privileges for the time being attached to any shares in the capital of the Company then issued, the new shares may be issued, upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges attached

there to as the general meeting, resolving upon the creation thereof, shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Board shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company

BORROWING POWERS

10. The Board may, from time to time, at its direction, subject to the provision of Section 292, 293 and 370 of the Companies Act, 1956, raise or borrow, either from the Directors or from elsewhere and secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company; provided that the Board shall not without the sanction of the Company in general meeting borrow any sum of money which together with moneys already borrowad by the Company (apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's bankers in the ordinary course of business) will exceed the aggregate for the time being of the paid up capital of the Company and its free reserves, that is to say reserves not set aside for any specific purpose.

GENERAL MEETINGS

11. In addition to any other meetings, general meetings of the Company shall be held with such intervals as are specified in Section 166 (1) of the Companies Act 1956 and, subject to the provisions of Section 166 (2) of the said Act, at such times and places as may be determined by the Board. Each such general meeting shall be called an "annual general meeting" and shall be specified as such in the notice convening the meeting. Any other meeting of the Company shall be called an Extra Ordinary General Meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

12. The ordinary business of an Annual General Meeting shall be receive and consider the Profits and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the Reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, to elect Directors in the place of those retiring by rotation, to appoint Auditors and fix their remuneration and to declare dividends. All other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting and all business transacted at any other General Meeting shall be deemed special business.
13. (a) The Chairman of the Board shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or is unwilling to act, the members present shall choose another Director, as Chairman, and if no Director be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the members present shall, on a show of hands or on a poll of properly demanded, elect one of their member, being a member entitled to vote, to the Chairman.

(b) Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided, in first instance by a show of hands, and in the case of an equality of votes, both on a show of hands and on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a member.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

14. (1) Save as hereinafter provided, on a show of hands every member present in person and being a holder of Equity Shares shall have one vote and every person present either as a General Proxy on behalf of a holder of Equity Shares. If he is not entitled to vote in his own right or as a duly authorised representative of a body corporate, being a holder of Equity Shares, shall have one vote.
- (2) On a poll the voting rights of a holder of Equity Shares shall be as specified in Section 87 of the Companies Act, 1956.
- (3) The holders of Preference Shares shall not be entitled to vote at general meeting of the Company except as provided for in Section 87 of the Companies Act, 1956. Provided that no body corporate shall vote by proxy so long as a resolution of its Board of Directors under the provisions of Section 187 of the Companies Act, 1956 is in force and the representative named in such resolution is present at the general meeting at which the vote by proxy is tendered.

DIRECTORS

15. Until otherwise determined by special Resolution, the number of the Directors of the Company shall not be less than three nor more than seven. Directors are not required to hold any shares in the Company as qualification shares.
16. The persons hereinafter named shall be the first directors of the Company :

- (1) Deoki Nandan Bhalotia.
- (2) Ram Niwas Bhalotia
- (3) Narendra Kumar Jain

17. (a) If at any time the Company obtains any loans or any assistance in connection therewith by way of guarantee or otherwise from any person, firm, body corporate, local authority or public body (hereinafter called "the Institution") or if at any time the Company issues any shares, debentures and enters into any contract or arrangement with the institution whereby the Institution subscribes for or underwrites the issue of the Company's share or debentures or provides any assistance to the Company in any manner and it is a term of the relative loan assistance, or contract or arrangement that the Institution shall have the right to appoint one or more Directors or Directors to the Board of the Company, then subject to the provisions of Section 255 of the Act and subject to the terms and conditions of such loan, assistance, contract or arrangement the Institution shall be entitled to appoint one or more Director or Directors, as the case may be to the Board of the Company and to remove from office any Director so appointed and to appoint another in his place or in the place of a Director so appointed who resigns or otherwise vacates his office. Any such appointment or removal shall be made in writing and shall be served at the Office of the Company. The Director or Directors so appointed shall neither be required to hold any qualification share nor be liable to retire by rotation and shall continue in office for so long as the relative loan, assistance, contract or arrangement as the case may be, subsists.

(b) The Board of Directors may appoint alternate Directors as envisaged under Section 313 of the Companies Act 1956.

18. Unless otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting each Director shall be entitled to receive out of the funds of the Company for his services in attending meeting of the Board or a Committee of the Board, a fee not exceeding Rs. 250/- per meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board attended by him. The Directors (other than a Managing Director and a Director in the whole time employment of the Company) shall also be paid by way of further remuneration @ 3% of the annual net profits of the Company; (the rate of such commission shall be reduced to 1% in the circumstances referred to in Section 309 (4) (a) of the Act) : such net profits being computed in the manner laid down in Section 349 of the Act except that the remuneration of Directors shall not be deducted from the gross profits, such remuneration under this sub-para, shall be paid to all the Directors for the time being or to any one or more of them in such proportion as the Directors may by the resolution of the Board authorising such payments decide, and in default of such decision, equally amongst all the Directors for the time being in office during the year. Such remuneration in respect of each financial year shall be paid in the next subsequent year. All other remuneration, if any, payable by the Company to each Director, whether in respect of his service as a Managing Director or a Director in the whole or part time employment of the Company shall be determined in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The Directors shall be entitled to be paid their reasonable travelling and hotel and other expenses incurred in consequence of their attending at Board and Committee meetings or otherwise incurred in the execution of their duties as directors.
19. If any Director, being willing, shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing away from Calcutta for any of the purposes of the Company or in giving special attention to the business of the Company or as a member of Committee of the Board then, subject to the Sections 198, 309 and 310 of the companies Act, 1956 the Board may remunerate the Director so doing either by a fixed sum and or by a percentage of profits or otherwise and such remuneration may be either in addition to or in substitution for any other remuneration to which he may be entitled.
20. Every Director who is in any, whether directly or indirectly concerned or interested in a contract, or arrangement, entered into or to be entered into by or on behalf of the Company not being a contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into between the Company and any other Company where any of the Directors of the Company or more of them together holds or hold not more than ten percent of the paid up share capital in the other Company shall disclose the nature of his concern or interest at a meeting of the Board as required by Section 299 of the Act. A general notice, renewable in the last month of each financial year of the Company, that a Director is a director or a member of any specified body corporate or is a member of any specified firm and is to be regarded as concerned or interested in any subsequent contract or arrangement with the body corporate or firm shall be sufficient disclosure of concern or interest in relation to any contract or arrangement to be made and after such general notice, it shall not be necessary to give special notice relating to any particular contract or arrangement with such body corporate or firm, provided such general notice is given at a meeting of the Board or the Director concerned takes reasonable steps to secure that it is brought up and read at the first meeting of the Board after is given. Every Director shall be bound to give and from time to time renew a general notice as aforesaid in respect of all bodies corporate of which he is a Director or member and of all firms of which he is a member.

POWERS OF BOARD

21. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 the control of the Company shall be vested in the board who shall be entitled to exercise all such powers, and to do all such acts and things as the Company is authorised to exercise and do. Provided that the Board shall not exercise any power or do any act or thing which is directed or required, whether by the statute or by the Memorandum of the Company or by these Articles or otherwise, to do exercised or done by the Company in general meeting Provided further that in exercising any such power or doing any such act or thing, the Board shall be subject to the provisions in that behalf contained in the Companies Act, 1956 or any other statute or in the Memorandum of the Company, or in these Articles, or in any regulations not inconsistent therewith and duly made thereunder, including regulation made by the Company in general meeting but no regulation made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

MANAGING DIRECTORS/WHOLE TIME DIRECTORS

22. Subject to the provisions of Section 316 and 317 of the Act, the Board may from time to time appoint one or more Directors to be Managing Director or whole time Director of the Company, for fixed time or otherwise and may, from time to time (subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company), remove or dismiss him from office and appoint another in his place.
